

RECONOMY in Ukraine

RECONOMY is supporting Ukraine to advance circularity in textiles and apparel while strengthening resilience in the face of ongoing challenges. By embedding sustainability modules in education, fostering international market linkages, and supporting advocacy for circular practices, systemic change is being anchored in local institutions that will guide the sector's recovery and future growth.

GREENING TEXTILES AND APPAREL

Ukraine's textile and apparel sector is adapting to new realities with systemic support for circularity and sustainability.

7979
people and 318
businesses
engaged, with 1374 people
with increased
income of CHF
695,378.

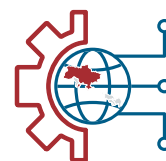

Collaboration with
Open Trade Gate
Sweden (OTGS)
provided enterprises
with orientation
on EU and
Swedish market
requirements, laying
the groundwork for
future exports.

Knowledge
exchange
sessions
introduced
businesses
to circular
production
models and
resource
efficiency.

UKRLEGPROM
strengthened
advocacy
for circular
practices and
supported
resilience
planning in the industry.

The
Sustainability
InnoCenter
partnered with educational institutions
to introduce
authorized
sustainability-
focused curricula
and modules.

These efforts are helping the sector shift toward sustainable business models while equipping enterprises with tools to maintain competitiveness in international markets.

Thousands of people
across the region
with better jobs and incomes

Cutting-edge
partnerships with
global investors,
with training centers,
and game-changers,
position the region for
long-term success

Green jobs and sustainable
businesses
taking root

With the right support and funding, these models can be scaled not only within Ukraine but across the region, amplifying impact and building a greener,
more inclusive economic future.

